The SolarPowa solar charger series (SolarPowa 36, SolarPowa 28, SolarPowa 14) continues to harness power for your road trip, sailing adventure, beach gateway, or camping trip with an energy conversion of up to 24% into free energy under enough sunlight; while most solar chargers in the market are merely 15% efficient.

The SolarPowa 28 is equipped with three USB ports and offers all the charging capacity that one could need while outside. However, it lacks DC charging, so plugging in your laptop or larger device won't work very well.

Due to variations in production batches, the appearance of SolarPowa 28 may slightly differ from the images displayed on our website. Rest assured, these differences do not affect the product's functionality or performance.

If you're car camping you can get better performance with a bigger panel, but the BigBlue 28W would still be helpful, especially if you lay it out in direct sunlight. It would also work well for travel to places with unreliable electricity, as it's thin enough to pack easily into a suitcase.

China continues to install more than half of the world's solar power in 2024. At the current rate of capacity additions, China is on track to add 28% more solar capacity than in the previous year. If this rate of additions is sustained, it would lead to a total installed capacity of 334 GW, making up 56% of global capacity additions for 2024.

Solar energy is an incredible power to harness and these 28 facts will blow your mind. Learn how far solar energy has come in the last decade. ... California is by far the leader of solar power in the United States. In fact, it generates too much energy for its own good. When this happens, it can easily overload the power lines and end up doing ...
