Form Energy Employees I apologize if there's a better sub for this, but I didn't see one for the business itself, and feel my post would get lost in a generic jobs sub. If there is a better place for this post, please let me know.

Form Energy has had a pilot facility in Cambridge, Minnesota operational since 2020. It's obviously worked well enough for investors to be happy to hand them a considerable amount of money. I don't think that is how it works. It might make sense to invest in a project that has significant chances of not working (ie being not economically viable ...
