Lol I didn't know this. I always build my solar away from the base because it's ugly. Actual solar panels are far more appealing (I have solar) than the ones in the game. I've also connect literally 100s of batteries to dozens of bio reactors all underground and few solar panels on top.

The solar panels are showing up as powered when connected to a battery. Thus it is impossible to use a power inverter to shut the lights off during the day and on at night b/c the solar panel output is powered to the inverter control as long as any of the panels in the network are hooked up to a battery. ...
